

“THE GREAT RESET”

(“LA GRANDE RÉINITIALISATION”)

June 2022 – In the previous article “The Lady Warned the Peoples” (Le Royaume, no. 275, p. 24), a certain number of dangers were mentioned, dangers which threaten this or that people or region in the world and sometimes the entire world. In fact, there is an obvious convergence between the warnings of the Virgin Mary during her apparitions, those of the Lady of All Peoples in her messages at Amsterdam and of Marie-Paule in her writings, the analyses and the presentations of Raoul Auclair and even the conclusions of many futurologists or simple observers of the realities in our present world.

Therefore, there will be no escaping this, without our being able, besides, to know exactly what we will not be able to escape. More than that – and to take up an expression which has suddenly become common and present today on so many lips or in the writings of so many – a “great reset” would seem to be necessary today. Yes, but, except for a little bit of time yet, not at all in the sense in which this is understood in today’s economic and political world!

The expression, The Great Reset, comes from the title of the last book by Klaus Schwab, Founder and President of the Worldwide Economic Forum which is held every year at Davos in Switzerland and which brings together a large number of heads of state or governments, expert economists, financiers, directors of business firms and media representatives from almost all countries.

The title of this book was translated into French by “La Grande Réinitialisation”, which is perfectly correct, but it could also have been conveyed, with less “computer reference” and precision of course, by “The Great Renewal” or “The Great Update” or even “The Great Bringing Back to Zero”.

There you have it for the origin and the meaning of the expression, but what the author is referring to when speaking of “a reset” is not the complete revision or global calling into question of the “economic System” which we could expect and which is often presented to us, but the simple and real “sinking” of the world, to an even greater degree, into the immense deviation it is following and the dangerous impasse into which it obstinately continues to rush headlong.

The tyranny of the economy, of the “all-economic” – and consequently, in fine, of money – is such today that we are no longer able to imagine anything else and so we quite naturally conceive systems in which the power of money imposes itself in an inevitable manner and ends up by dismissing everything that cannot be counted or calculated, so that the “quantitative” has completely devoured the “qualitative”. (In this regard, one can benefit from reading the book by René Guénon entitled, The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times, written in...

1945.) The first victim then is the spiritual life, but also love and friendship, mutual aid and solidarity, sacrifice and devotedness, to mention only these from among all the beautiful movements which can be found in the human soul.

Then, yes, humanity is faced with the greatest “reset” in History – yes, except, only at first, for this will not be in the way the great and powerful ones in the world envisage it or would want it to be. What is coming, in reality – but it will not happen without pain and suffering –, is the ruin and the depletion of the “all-monetary” and the resurgence of the “all-divine”. Tomorrow, it will no longer be the financiers and the other money manipulators who will guide the world and societies, but the humble and the lowly who, for a long time, have turned to Heaven and imbued themselves with the Wisdom of God.

In this regard, Marie-Paule has always been very clear. First of all in Life of Love (only a few examples):

- “God, through Mary, forms souls and makes ready the renewal.” (Life of Love III, p. 333)
- “The Lord is preparing souls for the hour of renewal.” (Id., p. 384)
- “May we be increasingly open to the ‘signs of the times’ and ready to participate, fittingly, in the combat which is being waged by [Mary], with a view to the authentic renewal.” (Life of Love, Appendix I, p. 277)

Marie-Paule also wrote these few sentences in Le Royaume, among so many others:

- “While our contemporary history is being written in letters of blood, God, the Author of all good,... is preparing the renewal of Light, Justice and Peace...” (Id., no. 80, May-June 1991, p. 4)
- “Our age, a torch? While passions are being unleashed, a spiritual revival is being prepared...” (Id., no. 93, May-June 1993, p. 3)

And finally, in The White Book, we can read this striking statement:

- “God sent the Lady of All Peoples to explain the painful time in which we are living and to help us get through the ‘Passage’ from this world to a period of renewal, for the happiness and survival of humanity.” (The White Book IV, p. 143)

Nothing less than the survival of humanity! This means that if we were not to get through “the passage from this world to a period of renewal” – the “authentic renewal” as Marie-Paule clearly indicated and not its present sham –, that would then be the end of humanity which is blithely running to its ruin, believing it is incessantly progressing and uplifting itself more than ever!

However, that will not happen, for “soon the ERA of true RE-NEWAL will radiate along new paths on the Earth of men” (Le Royaume, no. 145, Sept.-Oct. 2000, p. 5), and the great hope that was breathed into us by the Lady and which today is fully ours, will have contributed to causing the wall of darkness to recede and an Earth to rise up as clear and full of light as it is dull and black at the present time.

Oh, if the whole world could see the beauty of this Kingdom which we are already carrying in our hearts!
