

“Male and Female He Created Them”

The foretold Kingdom could not be established on earth without Evil, so well settled in, resisting it and, in a final fit of energy, having recourse to all its seducing tricks. So it is that, in today's world and in the Western monotheistic universe, we alone, within the Lady's Work, are in a position to make a certain number of observations and, especially, to see that two concomitant events exist - two Great Events: the one like a “groundswell” in the history of humanity, the other like a sort of extremely contagious “abscess” which would presently be marring its face.

Thus, on the one hand, the global Revelation from Heaven to Earth is moving forward and has just taken a giant step, namely, the Divinity we have been venerating for millennia in our world of thought is not only a masculine Reality – a Father and therefore a “Male” or a “Man” in fact –, but it is also a feminine Reality – a Mother, and therefore a “Female” or a “Woman” – and just like in the human couple, the one is necessary to the other and the Two are but One.

That is a real religious and cultural revolution, an unprecedented “spiritual earthquake” in the history of humanity since the time when God gave himself a Son among men, and at the appointed time, this Revelation will spread all over the Earth and bring about a new World based on new or rediscovered realities and entirely reformulated principles.

On the other hand, with regard to the perception human beings have of themselves and of their relationship with each other, everything which, until now, enabled them to define and situate themselves in the world is in the process of being utterly mixed up so as to cause total confusion. Thus, an attempt is being made to abolish what was the basic foundation not only of human relations but also constituted the very identity of each human being, that is, his masculine or feminine nature in the harmonious complementarity of the one and the other: “Male and Female He created them.” (Gen 1:27)

Under the pretext that sometimes – but so rarely –, there are “accidents” of nature, physical or psychological, the claim is now being made that neither the man nor the woman would be, in reality, what the millennia before us have always known them to be, that is, ontologically different beings. But to hell with those ancient obvious facts; today, in the minds of the “progressists” and the “reformers”, humanity would finally have understood! Human-ty would finally be emerging from the darkness in order to celebrate its victory over the “conditionings” built into creation by a Creator who is perceived as incompetent and even unjust, for He would not seek the opinion of the being about to be born to see if it wanted to be a man or a woman but would impose His will on it. Fortunately, Science and Medicine would now be in a position to fix His “mistakes”.

Already, the damage caused by such ideas – in many souls and in almost all countries – is inestimable. And this is very serious, for after the almost universal recognition of homosexuality as equivalent to the sexuality dictated by one's nature, this latter is now being directly attacked! There is total “confusion” and we shudder at the thought of the young people and the children who must develop as men or women in a world that is so out of touch with reality and mixed up.

God said:

“Let us make man in our image, after our likeness...”

God created man in his image; in his divine image he created him; male and female he created them.

God blessed them, saying:

“Be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it...”

(Genesis 1:26-28)

Consequently, two concomitant events: the Revelation of the Divinity as Male and Female and, at the same time, the progressive abolition of the distinction between man and woman here below. There is a mixing of the appearance and the clothing, the attitudes and the behaviors, the natural aptitudes and the resulting roles, all the way to one's sex which could be changed at will. This latter would no longer be an essential determining factor of the human being but simply an accident (a concept which, besides, denies the primary finality of sexuality, because for the time being at least, the “transgenders” cannot reproduce themselves in a natural manner).

That is how, as Marie-Paule often foretold, Evil, entirely in spite of itself, is contributing to highlighting Good. In fact, would the Evil One go to such lengths to confuse genders (and minds) if this fundamental distinction between Man and Woman, between male and female, were not destined to have an even greater significance and take on an even greater importance in the future, as soon as it is now applicable to the Divinity? Perhaps the relationship is an indirect one, but if we raise our eyes high enough, it is also evident. Yes, from God all the way to Man, everything is “polarized” in a world that has been harmoniously constituted. Divinity created, in its own image, complementary human beings so that they might find fulfillment, at one and the same time, in accordance with their own identity and in their complementarity, that is, in the joy of being oneself and the happiness of discovering the Other, so that Love would be fruitful.
